Dear Parent/Carer

Re: Year 7 Reading Logs

At the beginning of the academic year all Year 7 students were given a Reading Log which includes a recommended reading list and pages for book reviews and comments. All pupils were reminded to keep this log safe and to have it with them for every lesson, particularly during DEAR time, an established time after lunch which gives every child at St Edmund's Catholic School, fifteen minutes of private reading.

To further encourage independent learning and responsibility for their own school equipment, the decision has been made to charge pupils 50p for the replacement cost of any lost Reading Logs. Payments should be made to Mrs Stradling and receipts will be given for any money paid.

I would like to take this opportunity to remind you that reading is essential to everyday life as well as being a fundamental part of the school curriculum. As parents / carers, you are encouraged to read with your children, discuss their latest book and write comments in their Reading Logs.

Thank you for your support with this matter.

Your sincerely

L Stradling
