Dear Parent/Carer,

re: GCSE Exam Season

As you are aware your son/daughter has now started their GCSE exams but I am writing to remind you of the importance of the examination board requirements regarding school uniform.

All students taking a GCSE exam must wear their full school uniform this includes their tie, school shoes and blazers.

Should your son/daughter refuse to wear their uniform correctly they will need to be treated as a private candidate and incur a £65 fee per paper.

Exam certificates will be held by the school until any fees are paid.

I would also like to take this opportunity to encourage you to look at the "Top 10 tips to support your child through their exams" information, which is available on our school website. This information contains tips that have proven to help students be incredibly successful in these very important exams.

Once again, I would like to wish your son/daughter all the best during their exams and wish them all success with their future endeavours.

Yours faithfully,

Mr L Dehara
Key Stage 4 Leader – Year 11
