

Statement of procedures for dealing with allegations of abuse made against teachers and other staff.

St Edmund's Catholic School, Dover, is required to confirm that there are procedures in place for dealing with allegations of abuse made against teachers and other staff.

The procedures at St Edmund's Catholic School, Dover, for dealing with allegations of this nature, follow the statutory guidance as set out in 'Keeping Children Safe in Education, Statutory guidance for schools and colleges', published by the Department for Education in September 2016. Section Four, paragraphs 145-195 refer.